

Artist
Peter Harames

I live in Half Moon Bay and paint primarily watercolor sketches. I am a retired history teacher, varsity basketball, baseball and football coach. I took up painting after I retired and found I have a knack for it. I concentrate on watercolor sketches of historical iconic buildings and structures. San Francisco and Half Moon Bay have been my recent focus. I also just finished a major project; an oil painting of Chartres Cathedral in Chartres, France.